COLUMBIA ATHLETIC'S FAIR.

Indications Point to Success-Execu-

A well attended and very enthusiastic meeting of the executive committee hav-ing in charge the fair to be given for the benefit of the Columbia Ataletic Club was held at the clubbouse last night.

The character and nature of the work of each subcommittee was outlined and the chairman of each committee will receive full instructions of what is expected of him and those serving under him.

The several committees were authorized to go to work at once, and the more important committees will immediately take up the matters under their supervision and report preliminary results at an early meet-

The committees on donations and sub-scriptions and on music and entertainment have completed their membership. The former committee feels assured of its sucress and is already in receipt of several flattering promises of liberal donations. Owing to the unavoidable absence of several of the chairmen of committees the completion of the lists of the several subcommittee, was deferred until next week when the full and complete lists will be reported.

The chairman of the executive committee has issued a call for another meeting for Thesday evening next, at which time it is boost every part of the machinery will be in full working order.

IRWIN TO RESIGN.

Allen May Succeed Him as Manager of the Philadelphia Club.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.-John I. Rogers, one of the owners of the Philadelphia Baseball Club, says that he has no idea who will succeed Arthur Irwinas manager of the club. in case Irwin carries out his threat and goes to Toronto to manage the Eastern League team of that place. *

Mr. Rogers says that Irwin's contract with Philadelphia was to the end of the present month, and that he should take plenty of time in selecting a successor. Mr. Rogers does not seem to think that irwin was strict shough with the team, and he says that in contemplation of Irwin renewing his contract with the club for another year, he had drawn up a contract, by which Irwin would be obliged to enforce discipline.

Mr. Rogers says there is nothing in the rumors connecting John M. Ward with the management of the local team. He says that e considered Manager Watkins, of this cason's Indianapolis Clab, one of the best managers in the business, but that there was no probability of Watkins' coming to Phil-

That Is What the Spiders Will Do Against the Champions.

Claimed at Cleveland That the Nerve of Baltimore Is Gone and They Will Be Easy To-morrow.

(Special to The Times.) Cleveland, Oct. 4.-The second defeat of the champions by the local team has increased the frenzy of the Cleveland ball crank. Never in the history of the game of baseball has so much interest been shown. This is not only true astregards those who usually become enthused over baseball

Mation.
Cappy's superiority, bowever, was more marked than was Young's. While the Baltimore team got but five hits off of him, the Cleveland men made ten off of Hoffer, and they made good use of them as the score will show.

as the score will show.

Although there is no game to-day, there is no let up to basebull talk and the prospects for to-morrow. The Cleveland men and the ball enthusiasts generally seem to think that they have "got the nerve" of the Raltimoreaus, and that they will make the home series three straight. The Raltimoremen, however, will make a determined effort for to-morrow's game. They know that going home without a victory would insure them a less hearty reception than they would otherwise receive. they would otherwise receive.

The most important feature acted upon was fixing the date for the fair from December 4th to the 14th, inclusive.

The character and nature of the work of each subcommittee was outlined and the earth of the character and nature of the work of each subcommittee was outlined and the performance of that day.

It is said in some quarters that McMahon would like to have another chance before leaving here, but those who should know predict that Hanlon will present Esper. It is the opinion of many baseball men that in a tight place McMahon is a quitter. They say he was unstrong throughout the game on Wednesday. The steady work of Young and the Cleveland men rattled him.

The Orioles quit the season with the scaln of all of the other League clubs in their belts, but they quit it with the biggest run of con-secutive victories to their credit. They won fourteen games straight.

The report that Amos Rusie was to leave the New York team seems to have been without foundation. He will be a Giant again in '96; at least, O. P. Caylor says he will, and Caylor knows.

The summing up of the work done by the players in the big League during the season shows some interesting facts. For instance, Cartwright once had 18 put-outs and 1 assist, with no errors, once 16 put-outs and 2 assists, and once 17 put-outs, all without errors. Crooks once had 9 assists and twice errors. Crooks once had 9 assists and twice errors. 8, without an error. Selbach played in 99 games before he failed to have a fielding chance. Twice he had 7 put-outs, three times 6, and six times 5.

Big Sam Thompsonduring the season made 45 hits in 16 games, for a total of 81. These included 13 singles, 7 doubles and 2 home runs. In three consecutive games he made 4 hits, and in two consecutive games 4 hits. These streaks of batting come within 14 games. In the last 31 games of the season he batted safety in all but two, making 63 hits. In these were included 9 doubles, 8 triples and 6 home runs. Four times in these games he made 4 hits in a game and once he made 5. In another run of 9 games he made 19 hits for 32 bases.

The least amount of money received during the year by a club was that paid to Pittsburg by Louisville, $21.25.

Pop Anson can well afford to stand the scorehings he gets once in a while. He has not only won something like $4,000 in bets on the baseball outcome this year, but his club has cleared $75,000 for its owners.

It is said that Latham

Jennings, of the Baltimore team, made a great fielding record daring the pennant race. He accepted all but 1 of 135 chances oftered him in his last 22 games of the season—a percentage of .992. He had as many as 10 put-outs in one game; in another game had 9 and twice had 8. His best showing was in the game when he put out 9 men and assisted 11 times with put out? here and assisted 11 times with no errors. In the very first game of the sea-son he accepted 11 chances and in the second 12 more. In the first 7 games he accepted 61 chances without making a misplay. He av-eraged 9 chances per game in his first 10 games. In 20 games he accepted 10 chances or more in a game. July 2 he accepted 14 out of 16 chances. In another game he out of 16 chances. In another game he accepted all of 13 chances, in another all of

Hoy, formerly of the Washington team, struck out but six times during the sea-

In thirteen games during the season Charley Abbey made twenty-eight hits Tom Brown put out nine men in one game, seven in each of three other games, six in each of two games, and five in each of five Donovau, of the Pittsburg club, made but one error in sixty games, and in forty-seven games he did not make any.

they will have a killing or two sure enough tough with a gun looking for an Oriole. A Boston paper informs its readers that one of the Western clubs should be watched next year, that it is getting ready to make a desperate effort to win the pennant. It strikes some people that one of the Western clubs made an effort this year that came pretty close to landing the pennant, and Boston had no part in keep-ter to fear doing it. pennant, and Bostou ing it from doing it.

Keeler, of the Baltimore team, is a young-ster who during the season did some tail work with the stick. He hit safely consec-utively in stretches of thirteen, fourteen, and sixteen games. His best perform-ance was eighteen hits in six games. In each of five games out of six he cracked out three hits. Again he made fifteen hits in four games. In scoring he made thirteen runs in four games. In his first seventy-seven games of the season he made hits in all but eight. In three of the games in which he failed to bat safely he was up but three times, and in one game but twice. Clark, of the Louisville team, batted safely in twenty-three straight games. In forty-five games he failed but twice to make a hit. In five games he made fourteen Pitcher Fisher, who is to go to Cincinnati next season, won 36 out of 44 games for Indianapolis; Hastings, who was purchased by Pittsburg, won 26 out of 38 games for Kapsas City, Goar, who is booked for league company, won 13 out of 31; Mullane won 15 out of 25, and Hughey won 22 out of 35.

YALE AGAINST CAMBRIDGE

Meeting of the College Teams on Manhattan Field To-morrow.

Men Who Will Take Part in the Games and What They Have Done in an Athletic Way.

To-morrow afternoon, at Manhattan Field, the Yale and Cambridge University teams will come together in an international col-lege athletic contest. The event has received a great deal of attention both here and in England and the results will be awaited with much interest in both coun

Before the trials have been made it looks as though the Americans ought to win at least six of the eleven events on the pro-gramme. In the 100-yard run the visgramme. In the 100-yard run the vis-itors will have Williams and Wilding. Each of these men have covered the distance in 10 15 seconds. The Yale representatives will be Richards and Burnet. Richard is good for 10 seconds for the distance, while Burnet has run it in 10 1-5 seconds. The Cambridge men in the 120 yard hur die race will be Pelkington and Fletcher. Both of these gentlemen have done this sort of a race in 16 1-5 seconds. The Yale entries are Cady and Hatch. Cady is capa-ble of doing the distance in about the time of the foreigners. Batch is not so good. This is one of the events the Englishmen are confident they will win and the Amerleans concele that it is likely to go to from concesse that it is insery to go to them.

For the high jump Cambridge has en-tered Johnston and Jennings, and Yale has entered Thompson and Sheldon. This is another event that there is doubt about on both sides, for each of the four men is credited with 5 feet 11 inches. The Eng-lishmen, however, are hopeful that their men may do a little better than this on a

For the 300-yard run Cambridge has For the 300-yard ran camorage has Fitz Herbert and Davenport and Lewin and Yale Richards and Byers. It is expected that Fitz Herbert for the English and Rich-ards for the Americans will make this zace, which is another of the doubtful events. Richards can go the distance in 31 1-2 sec-

In the shot putting event Watson will represent Cambridge and Hickok and Brown Yale. Hickok, both sides agree, will win this contest without trouble. As he will also the hammer throwing event

For the half-rulle run Cambridge has entered Horan and Davenport, and Yale Crane and Wade. Horan is conceded to be able to do this in 1.57, while neither of the Yale men will go the route under

For the broad jump Cambridge will present Mendelsohn, and Yale Sieddon and Mitchell. Mendelsohn has covered 22 feet and 5 inches, but Sheldon is expected to win this event handily, as he can show 22 feet.

For the mile run Cambridge has Laytens and Horan, and Yale Morgan and Wadhams. Morgan can run the distance in about 4:26. Laytens can go the mile in less than 4:20, and the race looks like a gift for the Englishman.

For the 440-yard run the Cambridge men will be Fitz Herbert and Lewin, and Yale Richards and Sandford. If Sanford does not start Chubb, will take his place. Fitz Herbert and Lewin, and Yale was the combined of the combi start Chubb will take his place. Fitz Her-bert can run the distance in 49 seconds, while neither of the Yale men are looked to for better than 50 seconds.

This has certainly been an unlucky year for the British sporting brethren who have come among us. First, came Dunraven with his yacht, and she was ignominiously beaten by the Defender. Then came the London Athletic Club, composed of the crack amateurs of England, Ireland, Scot-land, and Australia, and they were beaten by the New Yorkers in every event. Then we were attacked by Capt. Mitchell and his cricketers, and the Philadelphians simply his cricketers, and the remanderphians simply walked on them.

Next came the much-landed professional pugilist, Arthur Valentine, the best man if all England of his pounds. A great deal had been heard of his fistic powers, and had been heard of his fistic powers, and for a time the American fighters of his class stood aloof. They were in a quandry about the advisability of tackling him. Finally, McKeever, the Philadelphian, who as yet has met none of the really good boxers in the light-weight division of the country, agreed to fight the Britisher.

He beat Valentine at every point in the battle which occurred on Wednesday night, and knocked him completely out in the and knocked him completely out in the seventeenth round. To morrow the Yale athletes will try conclusions with the Cam-bridge men. The Britishers themselves admit that they will be beaten in more than a majority of the events. Altogether it has been a sorrowful season for the sub-jects of Johnny Bull, while it has been a glorious one for Uncie Sam.

Arrangements have been partially made for a big six days' bleycle race meet to be held in Madison Square Garden next spring. If arrangements are finally made, and the chances are that they will be, the meet will differ in several important respects from those previously held.

Harley Davidson, the Canadian bicyclist, rode a haif mile on Javis street. Toronto, early yesterday morning in 53 4-5 seconds, breaking the world's record of 55 seconds. Jarvis street is paved with cedar blocks, is absolutely level, and furnishes a splen-lid course for speeding on a bicycle. The authorities, however, do not allow "scorching" except late at night or during the early morning hours.

"Willie" Windie, paced by a quadruplet and a quintette, rode a mile at Charter Oak Park, Hartford, Conn., yesterday afternoon, in 1:4734. which equals the record made by J. S. Johnson at M inneapoils on November 21, 1894. The quarters were 26 1-5, STOLL'S "810" Seventh Street Northwest.

Interest and Crowds Increase as the It Strikes the Mayor of Cleveland Football Teams Are Said to Have Meeting Progresses.

Annie Lawson and Island Girl Were Altogether Too Speedy for the Washington Horse, Claymore.

(Special to The Times.) Baltimore, Oct. 4.-The splendid work one at Pindico yesterday by Raven and Miss Woodford in the 2:12 pacing race, and

Both horses in the 2:12 pace beat the track record, Miss Woodford reeling off next in 2:10, 2:10 1-4 and 2:10 1-4. The 2:29 trot also proved a very inter ton stallion Claymore, jr., owned by Mr Gheen, was entered. The company he was in was too fast for him. Annie Lawson tak-ing the first heat in 2:21 1-4, and Island Girl the next three in 2:18 1-4, 2:21 1-4 Girl the next three in 2:181-4, 2:211-4 and 2:213-4. Claymore finished fifth in all four heats.

To-day the 2:22 pacers and the 2:37 trotters come together. In the first race there are seventeen entries, including the bay stallion E. H. L., owned by Mr. Wells, of Georgetown. In the second race there are ten entries. The meeting closes towards.

For weeks past it has been suspicioned by well-posted harness horse men that Ed Geers, the famous driver of Robert J., had something up his sieeve with the pacing horse, Star Pointer, and it appacing horse, Star Pointer, and it appears this suspicion was well founded. Yesterday Star Pointer started in the 2:16 race at Terre Haute against such fast ones as Frank Agan, Coleridge and a half dozen others. The odds against Pointer in the betting were enticing, and Geers sent him to the front at flag fall in each heat, annot he was never headed, going under the wire in 20412, 2:0434 and 2:0612. The race shows Star Pointer to be about as fast as Pauchen, Gentry, or

A. J. Cassatt is preparing to return to the turf next year. He now has a big lot of youngsters in training, and with the lot he expects to again begin operations.

A writer on turf topics in a tong ist of trotters and pacers gives the winnings for the year in the grand circuit as Robert J., $3,750; Joe Patchen, $5,000; John R. Gentry, $1,250; Azota, $5,500; Benzeita, $5,500, and Klamath, $4,750. If these figures are true where could all of the rich purses advertised by the circuit meetings have gone to.

Yo Tambien is booked to start at La-tonia next week after being amiss for months. The great mare gives promise of being about as good as ever.

Mike Dwyer is now after the California horse Rey del Carreras. It is said that he has offered for him what Mr. Croker was reported to have offered, $30,000. Croker and Dwyer bidding against each other ought to make things lively.

Riley Grannan, the boy plunger, having run against another losing streak, is going to divide his money between the horses and the fighters. He has made three bets amounting to $18,000 that Fitzsimmons will wip Gorbett if the battle comes off. If things come his way he will win $30,000 op the battle.

Among some of the best two-year-olds who have come to the front this season in the West are Ramario, owned by Hops Landeman; Mobalaska, of Ed. Corrigan's. stable; Hot Springs Stable's Ben Eder, Carroll Seids' Sherlock; Motilla, Kate Le Grand, Myrtle Harkness, The Dragon, and First Mats.

FAST RACING AT PINLICO REFORM SPREADS RAPIDLY BLUE AND CRIMSON MEET

Island Girl in the 2.29 trot, created a great deal of interest, and there is every promise that the greatest crowd of the mayor says. "An exhibition in which promise that the greatest crowd of the mayor says." An exhibition in which promayor says: "An exhibition in which pr fessionals of the reputation of Sullivan fig-ure should be discouraged in every possi-ble way and I am therefore examplied to refuse your request."

The Eureka Club is looking around for a couple of good boxers of the light or middle-weight class to go on as a currain-raiser for the Godfrey-Woods bout.

If Dan Stuart and his friends fail to pull off the fights they have on bands, they will not only be out what they have spent on the big shed at Dallas, but they will have to pay forfeits to Pitzsmimons, Cor-bett, Maher, O'Donnell, Smith and Ryan, that will run well up in the thousands.

It is now said that the Fiorida Athletic Club has its eyes turned longingly to Mex-ico. The president of that republic has said he would be opposed to having Cor-bett and Fitzsimmous there, and it is alto-gether probable that there is no governor of a State in that country who will take the fight under his wing in opposition to the president's wishes.

Kid Lavigne will now be able to keep out of a fight with Arthur Valentine, but it will be pretty hard for him to keep out of McKeever's way. John Clark, the Philadelphia veteran, has for a year or more claimed that McKeever is the best man in the lightweight class in this country. McKeever has not proven this to be true yes, but that he has made a good start toward proving it must be admitted, and he seems to be ready to give further proof of it when ever any of the top-notchers will condescend to give him the chance.

Stanton Abbott is well pleased over the defeat of Valentine at the hands of Charley McKeever. There has been bad feeling between the two Englishmen since Valentine arrived on this side and posed as the lightweight champion of England, a title that Abbott has been traveling under ever since he landed. Abbott also got a walloping at the hands of McKeever, and now that Valentine has received a like dose, the pair, so far as America is concerned, are on about even terms. Abbott, however, is again out with the announcement that he will fight Valentine.

Sam Haller, who was talked about a good deal while Governor Mitchell, of Florida, was threatening to stop the Corbett and Mitchell fight at Jacksonville, is again to the front. At that time Haller offered to furnish a tent that would seat 10,600 people and a fighting ground for the to furnish a tent that would seat 10,000 people and a fighting ground for the pugilists. Now he is out again with the big tent proposition and declares he will find a battle ground where Fitzsimmons and Corbett can punimel each other for a week without being interferred with, provided he gets a bit out of the ticket sales. Haller is now in Atlanta to confer with Corbett.

The spirit of reform that seems to be moving the good people in various sections of the country just at this time against fighters and fights, it is feared, may break into this neighborhood before long. It was said yesterday that the governor of Maryiand may step to the front and put a quietus on fighting matters at Baltimore. There is considerable opposition in certain quarters in that city to the bouts that are of frequent occurrence there now. Some of this opposition comes from people who are sincerely opposed to boxing, while a good deal of it comes from men who would like to have a bit out of the profits of the clubs now there, but who, finding they cannot get it, want them shut up. It was also said that there would be steps taken when the legislature of that State meets again to put a stop to boxing in Virginia.

Ill-Feeling to Be Dropped and Arrangements Made for an Early Battle on the Gridiron

New York, Oct. 4.-According to excellent authority, the negotiations for a football game this year between Yale and Har-

Harvard is willing to play a game on colordinary challenge. All other conditions, such as an apology by Harvard for certain criticisms of Hinkey's playing at Springfield last year, must be dropped. This is the ulti-matum, it is said, of the Harvard football authorities, and it remains for Yale to It is also reported that Harvard favors the grounds of Brown University at Providence, but there may be a hitch, as Yale wants to play at Springfield or not at all. If Yale does not come to time with a challenge the New Haven men will not be regarded as undoubtedly wear the crimson this fall.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES embody the salient features of the Massa-chusetts road law. This law requires the ap-propriation of a certain sum every year to be expended on the roads in the different counties in the State. The leading spirits in the movement are A. C. Wilson, of Cumber-land, president of the League of American Whechnen, and Howard Williams, presi-dent of the Maryland Bicycle Club. Both are well known throughout the State, and will be able, it is believed, to bring con-siderable influence to bear on the law-maskers when they get together.

Prince George's County, Maryland, is also frequently visited by cyclists here. It might be well for Washington riders to give the Marylanders a helping hand if they can.

While fighting men and fighting clubs are being suppressed in the wild and woolly West and in the South, the East seems to be falling right into line with them again. The Empire Athletic Club, at Mazpeth, Long Island, was organized to fill the place of the Corey Island Clubs that were shut down some months ago, and it is flourishing encouragingly. It was bere that Mc-Keever and Valentine fought on Wednesday night. Now comes the news that "a great boxing organization, similar to the Coney Island Club, will be one of the features of Canarie before long." Canarie is within a few minutes' ride of New York city. It is intended to build a club house at Canarie in landing capable of holding a large crowd of speciators, and to have guests and subscribers for the general athletic and boxing exhibitions. The residents of the locality where it is proposed to build the amphithealer are now, it is said, heartily in favor of the new organization.

FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS A SLAVE.

the Streets of Minneapolis.
From the Minneapolis Penny Press.
Morgan Jones, a colored man, thirely rears of age and fifty-seven years a stave, is among the applicants for the bootblack's stand of the new court house. When Morgan was born he discovered nimeelf located upon the Chapei planta-tion, in Halifax county, Va., near the North Carolina line. This memorable event in his existence occurred August 10, 1805. He grew fast-a habit for the Southern picaninny—and before many years was tol-ing beside his mammy in the field. His father and mother died, but the son tolled on in the stavery to which he was born on in the shavery to which he was born until he had reached the mature age of fifty-seven. Up to this time he had never been ten miles from the spot upon which he was born. His career had fittle in it of an exciting character, aside from the sanday trips to a village near by where the frisky element appared to procure thisky that could be obtained for 25 cents per gallon. But Morgan was as frisky as any of them, according to hisstory, told not boastingly at all.

"I was a godlemity good man, when I was young," said Mergan, and judging from the manber of his victories in contests where Marquis of Queensbury rules were unknown.

Marquis of Queensbury rules were unknown, it is safe to believe him. A source of pride to Morgan in his old age is the remembrance that his mother was once offered $1,100 for him.

The great change in "uncle's" life took place in 1862, when Gen. Sigel's soldiers came and set him free with others. The happy colored folks were taken to St. Lonis and 500 of them placed on board a steamer bound for the north in charge of Capt. Sawyer and his company of militia. Morgan did not leave the boat as others did, mail did not leave the boat as others did, until its most northerly point was reached, for he figured that the farther from the South he got the safer he would be. In the spring of 1862 he walked into the village of St. Anthony and before long went to work for a Mr. Chambers, who had a farm at Lake Calhoun. He afterward worked at Richfield on the farm of James Ball. The latter halive to-day and when at the court house has friendly chais with "uncle."

The latter, at the end of life, has never been outside of the State line, and seldom outside of Minneapolis. "Uncle" is poor in property, and slightly bent under the weight of years. He may be seen shaffling along toward the old court house any morning with a little basket of fruit on his arm. He has a blacking stand in the basement and did not leave the boat as others did, until has a blacking stand in the basement and gathers a few dimes by his labors each day. "Uncle" makes friends with all he meets and there are sone who do not with lim success in the first appointment of his long life.

How She Used the Doll.

A new use for a doll has been discovered by an ingenius London thief. A woman who was arrested for stealing from one of the large dry goods shops was found to have been carrying what everybody supposed to be a haby, but what in reality turned out to be a huge doll with a wax face and hollow leathern body. It was the thief's custom to concent the stoken articles as quickly as she got her fingers on them, gloves, laces and so forth, in the cavernous and spacious interior or the baby.
